

In a letter dated 1938, Hilario writes, "All my drawings are done with the idea to use them in the future for historical significance.

They are realized in the form of a cartoon...

...in order to avoid the guards from stopping my drawings."

